APPERNOON REPORT.

The streets of Houston are enthemed by many visitors from the interior, many of the largest most respectable planters are taking the oath of allegiance. A small gardson of Union troops occupy Houston. Wighting family had arrived at Marshall. A freed in the Rio Grande has swept anal 1500 bitles of cotton stored on the Mexican side of the River. The greater portion will be saved Jaybankers infect middle and western Texas and are rothing at the takeholder. will be saved Jayhankers infest middle and western Texas and are robbing the inhabitants and stage passengers. Gov. Murray had been robbed of $2,200. The citizens are praying for Union troops to reach their localities. The Houston telegraph complains of the flightto Mexico and elsewhere of the leaders of the robbin, leaving the rank and file. Parties are preparing to slip cotton to New Orieans, at 11 cents per pound. Labor is in immediate demand in the wheat raising regions. Gold and silver is abundant, but the rapid influx of greenbacks is fast replacing the metal.
